Parking Notes
The footprint will be light. We've arranged to use the parking lot at the junkyard and also their restroom. We will park crew cars there and walk over. After lighting, we will also park the gear truck in the parking lot, too. The only thing that will be at the requested address is the models and the car we are taking pics of and a generator to power our lighting setup. The area is industrial, but there is literally nothing around us. We will keep the chatter to a minimum and are not going to play any music at all.
